Rewards Program Payout

Babies First and Kids First

Within 30 days of signing up for Babies First or Kids First, we'll send a CareSource Rewards Card to you in the mail. Please keep this card in a safe place. Rewards are added to your CareSource Rewards Card as you complete healthy activities.

MyHealth

MyHealth rewards are added to your account as you complete healthy activities. Just log in to your secure MyCareSource.com account and click on the MyHealth link under the Health tab to see your rewards. You can also track your progress and view your rewards balance here.

For rewards where you need to see your PCP or other provider, the provider will send a claim to CareSource. CareSource will add the rewards to your CareSource Rewards Card or MyHealth account after we process the claim. If you don't see the rewards on your card right away, don't panic. It can take up to 45 days after we get the claim before reward will be added to your card.
