Section 2: Consent to Share Health Information

This Member Consent/HIPAA Authorization Form provides your consent to share your health care information with others. This information is shared to help with your care and treatment, or to help with benefits. Your health care information may be shared with any past, current, or future providers you've seen for care. It also may be shared with ~~the~~ some Health Information Exchanges (HIE). An HIE lets providers view health information that CareSource has about members. You also can share your health information on your own health care apps. You have the right to ask for a list of everyone who was given your health information by CareSource.

☐ Check this box if you want your health information to be shared with the past, current, and future providers you've seen for care, or your personal health care apps. The information will be shared for treatment, to manage your care, and to help with benefits. The information shared will include sensitive health information, including treatment for substance use and HIV/AIDs. For your personal health care apps, you will have more control over the information shared when you install it.

Or –

☐ Check this box if you do not want your health information to be shared with past, current, and future providers you've seen for care. The information will not be shared for treatment, to manage your care, or to help with benefits. None of your health information will be shared with your providers, with these exceptions:

- Due to state requirements we must follow, your <Primary Care Provider (PCP)> may get a report that includes physical and behavioral health treatment you may have received. It will not include substance use or HIV/AIDS information unless you checked the box above saying you want to share your health information.
- Due to other requirements we must follow, your health information may be shared with a HIE. It will not include substance use or HIV/AIDS information unless you checked the box above saying you want to share your health information.

If you do not approve sharing, your providers may not be able to manage your care as well as they could if you did approve sharing.

Section 3: Representative Designation

If you would like to name someone that CareSource may speak to on your behalf, please fill out this section. CareSource will share all of your health information with the person you name. If you name a group, like a law firm, the group is called an entity. Please give the entity's info and the name of acontact person at the entity.
